

FREEDOM NETWORK USA

TO EMPOWER TRAFFICKED AND ENSLAVED PERSONS

2008 Annual Conference

Action through Alliance:
Partnerships in Combating Modern Day Slavery

April 23rd & 24th in Decatur, Georgia

Nationally Known Experts on Human Trafficking will be speaking on a variety of topics.

Workshops Include:

- Best Practices: Cooperation Between Law Enforcement & Social Service Agencies
- Effective Case Management: Accessing Public Benefits
- Trafficking Trends: Minors, Domestic & International

Who should attend?

Legal advocates, victim advocates; social service providers; ethnic, faith-based and community-based organization members; local and federal law enforcement; attorneys; governmental representatives and anyone else interested.

To Register: <http://freedomnetworkusa.eventbrite.com>

Registration cost: $200

Breakfast, coffee and snack breaks are provided, and participants can enjoy their lunch at one of Decatur's fine local restaurants. For more information on Decatur, please visit <http://www.decaturga.com>

April 23rd Wellstone Award Banquet

Hosted by

Dedicated to Ending Violence in Refugee and Immigrant Communities

interested and want
more information?
please contact
cecilia@tapestri.org

